Note: Why I want a budget for shopping 100,000.00 GBP / a month (4,000,000.00 THB / a month)?

It is because I planned to donate 75,000.00 GBP for Sharing (Shopping Budget) Project. And I planned not to frequently go shopping at department stores in Thailand but I will buy products I click from “temporarily little shops” and abroad instead. In that:

- (1) I want British people to be happy along with Me 😊😊.
  - (2) I know the minds of all Thai people. After the news about Will and I will have been officially reported, all Thai people will dramatize to greatly admire Me and so very much happy with Me. So, if I go shopping at department stores in Thailand, scores of Thai people will come to the department stores to pretend to want to see Me. But in reality, they all know that I abhor Thai people, so I feel so very much displeased when I am among Thai people. So that, the foremost reasons why they will come to the department stores are that “Angie will come shopping unhappily!” and they enviously want to see “Now, how Appearance of Angie is!” 😞😞
- And
- (3) The Father Almighty told Me “Angie, executives of many brands will fly to Bangkok to “set their temporarily little shops up” at Your accommodation to help You to be able to buy their products by not going to department stores 😊😊”
