

My message to Prince William

(A Beautiful Quote)

(13 November 2025)

Prince William, sir. I found a beautiful quote from going online. And I truly would like to share the quote with you.

Let's listen;

When the two ears are put side by side,
it forms the shape of the heart.

Interestingly,
the word "ear" sits right in the middle of the word "heart".

The ear is the way to the heart.

So,
if you want someone's heart,
learn to listen to her or him.

Prince William, sir. Your decision to call Me before 19 November 2025 or not to call Me before 19 November 2025 will show Me the truths You are a reasonable person enough for being My Husband, The Father of My Children, and The Male Leader of My Family or not.

Prince William, sir. I am waiting for calling from You.
