

A phenomenon of envious and malicious minds of all Thai people (11 October 2025)

(Please read them all.)

I hired a company limited to print My message on a vinyl board to tie at The Door in front of My Home after Prince William will have called Me. In My Artwork, the background colour of My message is white. But on 11 October 2025, I got the vinyl board which background colour is purple. And purple is the colour which many Thai people believe that it means “widows” and “widowers”!

The Father Almighty or Allah told Me “Angie, We need to let many foreign people especially many foreign reporters see the purple which is the background of the vinyl board on The Door in front of Your Home and let them know the meanings of the colour for the Thai people before. For that reason, the foreign people will know how envious and malicious minds of all the Thai people are. After that, I will change the background colour from purple to be white!

Before “A phenomenon of envious and malicious minds of all the Thai people by the purple vinyl board” occurred, I had noticed that “Little Twin Stars” that are “Kiki”, a boy, and “Lala”, a girl, two of the characters of Sanrio that The Father inspired the Japanese creator to create for Me, were coloured the colour “green” which means devils on his hair and on its products many times, and were coloured the colour “purple” which the Thai people believe that it means “widows” and “widowers” on The Name “Little Twin Stars”, on his hair, and on its products many times too!

Could “The phenomenon of the envious and the malicious minds of all the Thai people by the purple vinyl board” tell you anything about all the Thai people?

Note: On 11 October 2025, Mommy Pinya prepared a pot of spicy soup (Tom Yum) for Me. However, because Khun Jeab, a fruit seller, had not been able to find any straw mushrooms for the soup, but she had been able to find “Bhutanese mushrooms” for the soup, so Mommy Pinya needed to use “the Bhutanese mushrooms” for the soup for Me instead! ...

... After I had finished eating the Bhutanese mushrooms in the soup, I wanted to vomit, and then, felt pain at Muscles of My Forearms. So, I decided to tell Mommy Pinya “Mommy, My Body does not get Bhutanese mushrooms which is similar to a kind of Thai mushrooms which I avoid eating it. Because after I eat them, I will feel pain at some part of My Body and/or My Body will be felt uncomfortable. Could you please do not put any Bhutanese mushrooms in My dishes?” And Mommy Pinya said “Okay”. ...

... How the thickest face of king Jigme of Bhutan is? He really knows that Prince William of The British Monarchy is not only The Only One Man I love but also My True Soulmate created by The Father and The Son of The Father. But king Jigme of Bhutan has malevolently and unfairly competed with Prince William and has unashamedly offended wicked deeds to Us to separate Us from each other! ...

... So, could the incident of the Bhutanese mushrooms help us to call the incident "A phenomenon of envious and malevolent minds of the kingdom of Bhutan"? ...

... Because the natures of king Jigme of Bhutan are not different from the natures of the Thai dynasty and all the Thai people, so I do not doubt why the kingdom of Bhutan is poor and also an underdeveloped country the same as the kingdom of Thailand!
