

Announcement (30 January 2024)

Because LMG Insurance did not continue signing the contract between My Dad and the company, so My salary since December 2023 has been decreased from 17,000.00 THB to 10,000 THB. So, I cannot go shopping to see foreign people every month the same as in the past.

However, I would like to say “Thank you so very much, sir” to LMG Insurance both the head office in the US and the head office in Asia Pacific. The Father Almighty told Me “LMG Insurance heard My request, so their executives decided to hire Your Dad who has much experience in the Thai Insurance Circle but is an elderly to work for them to help Your Dad to have enough money to be Your electricity cost. And I requested them who are American people to help You and Your Parents because I actually would like You and foreign people to know “Not all American are wicked people. Just only some American are wicked people the same as all Thai people. So, Muslims and Christians especially American people will more understand each other 😊😊” ...

... Thank you so very much, sir again for LMG Insurance both the head office in the US and the head office in Asia Pacific. Pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty have prohibited The Father Almighty to tell Me what the certain future is, so I am not sure what will happen. But I truly would like you all to know that I really want to say hello and shake the hands of the executives and everyone who joined together to make up your minds to sign contracts with My Dad for many years ...

... Thank you so very much, sir ...

...You all continued My Life ...

Note: My Dad just told Me after he finished operating the joint bones of his right leg on 26 January 2024 “LMG Insurance contacted Me to work for the marketing department again. But I need to consider my health. If I have enough power, the contract will be signed in April 2024” ... Thank you so very much, sir again 😊😊.
