

Are their lives truly fulfilled and really happy?

(5 July 2024)

(I wrote this topic from 4 July 2024 to 5 July 2024, and posted it on My website on 5 July 2024.)

Before all else, I would like to spotlight the truth again: I am The Youngest Daughter of The Father Almighty or another name is Allah. My Soul is The Soul of The Holy Toddler. The Father Almighty or another name is Allah created Me to be the best example of how humans should be. And I am The Only One Prophet of All Religions of The Current Millennium.

So, I would like you all to think twice;

(1) If selling meat helped you to have much moral money and you will be fulfilled by the money, why Dhanin Chearavanont whose one of big businesses is selling meat, is afraid “If Angie, The Prophet, survive, my business will be collapsed”? Has the life of Dhanin been really happy? What will his life be in the end? And where will his spirit be in life after death?

(2) If selling beer and liquor helped you to have much moral money and you will be fulfilled by the money, why Charoen Sirivadhanabhakdi whose business is selling beer and liquor, is afraid “If Angie, The Prophet, survive, my business will be collapsed”? Has the life of Charoen been really happy? What will his life be in the end? And where will his spirit be in life after death?

(3) If selling drugs helped you to have much (3) money which drug-sellers worship as “God”, and you will be fulfilled and happy by the money, why Thai drug-selling gangs are afraid “If Angie, The Prophet, survive, my business will be collapsed”? Has the life of each gangster in their gangs been really happy? What will the life of each gangster in their gangs be in the end? And where will the spirit of each gangster in their gangs be in life after death?

(4) If lying and pretence helped you to get everything you want in your life, just do not let your targets catch up your lies and pretence, and you will be completed and happy by lying and pretence, why pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty are afraid “If Angie, The Prophet, survive, we will be unmasked, we will lose everything in our lives, and we will be sentenced as the real felons by Sha-re-ah Law”? What will their life be in the end? And where will their spirit be in life after death?

And

(5) If lying and pretence helped you to get everything you want in your life, just do not let your targets catch up your lies and pretence, and you will be completed and happy by lying and pretence, why foreign people who joined the plan are afraid "If Angie, The Prophet, survive, my felonies will be revealed and I will be punished as a co-worker by Sha-re-ah Law"? What will their life be in the end? And where will their spirit be in life after death?

Are their lives that are worry and are afraid of "If Angie who is The Prophet, Her Parents, and good people survive, how will we do?" almost all the time, truly fulfilled and really happy?

If they are truly fulfilled and really happy, why they have many things to be worry and to be afraid of?

Many of them have known the day when they will die, but could they bring the money to spend for themselves in their life after death? And what else they could bring it from this life for their life after death?

Whereas, did you see the different between A Group that never hurts anyone but just thinks about "How to survive?" and another group that always torments, hurts, and kills others and thinks about "How to kill Them?" "When will They die?" and "Why They have not died yet?"? 😊😊

And could you forecast how emotions of The First Group that never hurts anyone but just thinks about "How to survive?" and nearly survive are, but how emotions of the second group that always torments, hurts, and kills others and thinks about "How to kill Them?" "When will They die?" and "Why They have not died yet?" but nearly sent to be punished by Sha-re-ah Law, are? 😊😊

Are the lives of the second group truly fulfilled and really happy?

In the same way, how about the lives of envious people who need to destroy others by gossiping and/or hurting the others before to be fulfilled and/or to be happy?

There are more than 7,000,000,000 people in our world. How many people who are more successful than and/or are better than and/or are more stand out than an envious person? So, if the envious person envies everyone who is more successful than and/or is better than and/or is more stand out than him, how the mind of the envious person will be? Is the life of the envious person truly fulfilled and really happy by gossiping and/or hurting everyone who comes into his life and is more successful than and/or is better than and/or is more stand out than him? And how his life each day will be?

Are the lives of the envious people truly fulfilled and really happy?

😊😊 Once again: Are their lives truly fulfilled and really happy? 😊😊
