

Are you ready?

(Why ones does not have to take responsibility for?)

(19 June 2025)

(I do not bold and colour any words or any sentences because I would like readers to read all the topic to think twice 😊😊)

Why do you believe “Ones does not have to take responsibility for his mind, his word, and his action”?

Have you ever noticed that every society has laws, and both civil laws and criminal laws have sentences such as offences against reputation to warn everyone to be responsible for his word, and offences against life and body to warn everyone to be responsible for his action? And have you ever noticed that a defendant must be proved his intention both for a sentence of civil law and for a sentence of criminal law to warn everyone to be responsible for his mind?

If ones does not have to take responsibility for his mind, his word, and his action, why every society has laws? Why there are offences of fraud for a man who deceived others to take responsibility for his mind, his word, and his action in a prison? Why there are offences of murdering the other person for a man who killed another man to take responsibility for his mind, his word, and his action in a prison or by death penalty? Why there are courts of laws for corrupt politicians to take responsibility for their minds, their words, and/or their actions in a prison? And why there is International Criminal Court or ICC for people who genocide to take responsibility for their minds, their words, and their actions by death penalty?

A main purpose of every law is social peace. Therefore, one of the natures of the universe is “Law of Karma” or another word is “Bearing of Fruit” to help the universe to have the social peace. If nobody can prove a sin or a mortal sin of an evildoer in this world, the evildoer will be judged his all deeds after he will have died to help the universe to have the social peace. Did you know why there are Purgatory, Hell, and The Eternal Flame? 😊😊

Have you ever heard “The universe gives a good thing to an appropriate person.”? 😊😊

And have you ever heard “Law of Attraction”? 😊😊

“Law of Karma” or another word is “Bearing of Fruit” is “Law of Attraction”

The principle of “Law of Attraction” is not imagination to get everything you want in your life (by ordering The Father Almighty or Allah ☹️☹️), but it is that the sub-conscious of a man gathers every feeling when he does every deed. If the man feels good, satisfy, happy, and/or ecstatic when he does a negative deed such as wishing others maliciously, scolding others, persecuting others, hurting others, tormenting others, or killing others, his sub-conscious will gather “his deeds” as “positive feelings for his own himself”. And his sub-conscious will attract the deeds to himself in the future because his sub-conscious thinks “My master loves them!”. If they are not happened in this life, they will be happened in Purgatory, Hell, and/or The Eternal Flame, and/or in the next life (or lives).

An important truth is that a negative mind such as envy or wish others malevolently and a negative deed such as lying, stealing, violating a right of others, persecuting others, or killing other living things are harmful for ones’ mental health and health.

Could you notice that if a negative mind and a negative deed do not effect to one’s mental health and health, why there are “a lie detector” and “a polygraph” for police officers to investigate and interrogate?

However, The Father has told Me many times “Angie. Pimp king Bhumibol, prostitute queen Sirikit, the satanic Chakri dynasty, Ratchaneewan Ad-harn, and Ad-harn family ordered foreign researchers not to do research about how a negative mind and a negative deed are harmful for ones’ mental health and health!”

Why The Father created brains and bodies of humans to have processes like these?

It is because the universe has to have the social peace 😊😊.

If you know Real Me, you will know that when I get up, My Mouth does not have any odours and although I hardly go to see a dentist, My Teeth are not decay and I have not much dental plaque. The Father told Me “Angie. It is because You never lie to anyone, so You are not stress because of Your lie, so that Your Saliva is base with the result that Your Mouth is cleaned, Your Teeth are not decay easily, and You have not much dental plaque. But people who usually lie to others, are stress because they worry about their lies with the result that their saliva is acid, so their mouth is bad smell, their teeth are decay easily, and they have much dental plaque!”

And if you know Real Me, you will know that My solid waste is not bad smell. The Father told Me “Angie, You eat a lot of vegetables and fruits. They have much fibre with the result that Your Gut is base and cleaned. So, Your solid waste is not bad smell.” 😊😊

I am ready to explain the truth to you: I drink much Pepsi and never eat any collagens from fishes but why I can stand on only one leg even though My height is 155 cm., but My weight is around 85 kg., and only 1 year I will be 50 years old 😊😊.

I am ready to teach you and ready to tell you “The Truths of Life” to let foreign researchers to discover “The Truths of Life” along with us altogether. ... Are you ready? 😊😊
