

Before selling and buying (2)

I would like everyone especially everyone who aims to buy My thing (or things) to know;

1) Because I planned not to sell My things every month, so I changed the number of items of My things which I am selling from 1 item to 5 items per month to be 1 item to 7 items per month 😊😊. ...

... Almighty or Allah advised Me while I was writing The Topic “Before selling and buying” (19 August 2026): “Angie, the number of items of Your things which You are selling should be 1 item to 7 items per month” But at that time, I thought “That was My Thought” 😊😊.

2) Because My Father is 80 years old, so I cannot let Him go to His garden at Lampang province alone, but because He planned to go to the garden almost every month as although income from the garden is very low, the garden is His only one source of His income, so if a buyer buys My thing (or things) when I have to go to the garden with My Father, I will send My thing (or things) to the buyer as fast as I can after I come back Our Home in Bangkok. (I planned to send My thing (or things) to a buyer by DHL. I pay for a delivery fee. But the buyer pays for all taxes of your country 😊😊.)

And

3) Almighty advised Me;

“Angie, You have to set prices of Your things;

For products which are never opened and/or are never used but have Your Signature, You have to set prices from 10,000 GBP to 30,000 GBP 😊😊.

(But I am remaining the price 10,000 GBP for this section of things to help good middle-class people can afford My thing (or things) and gain profits from bargaining with owners of the brands, millionaires, billionaires, and/or collectors later 😊😊.)

For Your things which You have used, You have to consider how long when You have used, frequency of using: every day, usually, generally, or seldom, and how close up between You and Your things too 😊😊.”

And for some parts of Your Body such as Your Hair or Your fixed denture and for things which are Handmade by You, I will advise You later in the future 😊😊.”

😊😊 See you 😊😊

😊😊 Best Wishes with Love 😊😊
