

Excuses of all the Thai people and Lazada (Thailand)

(12 November 2025)

(Please read them all.)

I have bought clothes from Lazada application regularly.

On 10 November 2025, I received clothes which I bought from Lazada application, but I decided to return 9 clothes to get refund money from Lazada.

I made appointment with Lazada application to come to pick the 9 clothes up on 11 November 2025 from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm.

On 11 November 2025 in the morning, Lazada application showed Me “A staff whose name is Somboon will go to pick the 9 clothes up before 2:00pm”. But because Mr. Somboon usually came to My Home in the evening and I would send My Mind to King Charles, Prince William, and Prince Harry in the evening, so I called Mr. Somboon to emphasize that he had to come to pick the 9 clothes up within 2:00 pm. And a female assistant of Mr. Somboon said “Okay”

Later on, at 10:18 am, A staff of Lazada whose name is Kawee called Me and told Me “I am arriving Your Home to pick the clothes up soon”. I felt a little doubt “Why Mr. Kawee?” but I thought “Mr. Somboon might not be able to come to pick the 9 clothes up in time”.

I had calculated the refund money before I gave the 9 clothes to Mr. Kawee. As a result, I really know that after Lazada system had refunded My Money, My Money in Lazada wallet had to be 729.28 THB and My Money in Lazada PayLater had to be 1,718.39 THB. Whereas, after Lazada system had refunded My Money, My Money in Lazada wallet was 550.25 THB and My Money in Lazada PayLater was 1,585.98 THB.

Therefore, I called Mr. Kawee to ask him “Why I got My refund Money not all money? Did you give all the 9 clothes to Lazada?” Mr. Kawee replied “Maybe the clothes have not been gotten into the system.” But he did not say all the number of the clothes. And I heard “Do not say “9””

I heard the name “Kawee” in an English song. But I thought “Mr. Kawee must not be “Kawee” in the song” because his appearance seems to be kind and nice and he is cordial with Me. But what happened?

After I trust a Thai person, the Thai person betrays Me later. And it has happened repeatedly since I was 14 years old especially since 2000.

Before this time, in September 2025, 3 of My purchase orders were lost from Lazada system but I have needed to pay for the installments of the 3 purchase orders which was 3,286.32 THB until now. Lazada sometimes also refunded Me not all money I had to receive. And they were happened while I was having not much money too.

Another truth is that on the same day in the morning at around 9:50 am, Lazada application showed Me “A staff whose name is Traipob Rueangrit will come to send Me My parcels.

Because Mr. Traipob usually came in the evening and I would send My Mind to King Charles, Prince William, and Prince Harry in the evening, so I called Mr. Traipob to request him to arrive My Home before 5:30 pm.

Mr. Traipob did not pick the first call up but he picked the second call up. After he had picked the second call up, I requested him to arrive My Home before 5:30 pm. He answered “I will try. But today, there are a lot of parcels.” Therefore, because Mr. Somboon would come to pick the 9 clothes up, so I asked Mr. Traipob “Why does not Lazada let Mr. Somboon to come to send Me My parcels today because Mr. Somboon will come to pick the 9 clothes up? Could you request Mr. Somboon to come to My Home instead of you?”. He asked Me “Who is Mr. Somboon?” So, I explained. Next, he told Me “He went out of the hub!”

At around 5:30 pm, I washed My Face. While I was washing My Face, I heard “Mr. Traipob is arriving Your Home while You are washing Your Face” But I thought “It is a lie” because he always came later than 6:00 pm. However, after I had finished applying cream on My Face, I checked my Mobile phone. Lazada application told Me “Your parcels were successfully sent!” and it was missed call from Mr. Traipob which loud 42 seconds while I was washing My Face, but at that time, I had not heard anything. So, I thought “My mom got the parcels instead of Me”.

Whereas, while I was washing the back of My Mom at a bathroom on 2nd Floor, She told Me “I did not receive any parcels” So, after I had finished washing the back of My Mom, I came down to the front of My Home to find the parcels, but I did not see any parcels.

Therefore, I needed to go up to My Bedroom on 3rd Floor to call Mr. Traipob. But he insisted “I put Your parcels at Your Home” and “I will go back to Your Home”

After he had arrived My Home, he called Me to request Me to go to the front of My Home which is on 1st Floor. And he told Me "I put them on the gate post" So, I told him "It is very high. (I thought in My Mind "No postman of Lazada put My parcels on it"). I could not see them. Although I can see them, I cannot reach them" He laughed and said "I apologise"

I went back to My bedroom at 3rd Floor at around 5:46 pm. And I heard "They want You to go upstairs and downstairs again and again and again and again to see You fall asleep while You are sending Your Mind!" But luckily, I did not fall asleep while I was sending My Mind.

On 12 November 2025 at around 10:15 am, I just found that the surname of Mr. Traipob is "Rueangrit". And I heard the pronunciation "rit" in the song "Scream & Shout" sung by Will.i.am feat. Britney Spears.

After you read The Topic until this line, did you know what happened? And could you forecast what else is excuses of all the Thai people and Lazada (Thailand)?
