

Happier

(5 August 2024)

(I wrote this topic from 2 August 2024 to 5 August 2024, but posted it on My website on 6 August 2024.)

Will, King Charles, and Harry, sir. Two of the songs of today are “Leave a Tender Moment Alone” sung by Billy Joel and “Happier” sung by Marshmello and Bastille.

Will, King Charles, and Harry, sir. The songs can be understood both positive meaning and negative meaning, but I would like You All to understand the songs in the positive meaning.

Will, King Charles, and Harry, sir. I would like to hint You All that the pronunciations “I think that we both know the way that the story ends” in the song “Happier” means “At the time when Will decide to fire Kate, George, Charlotte, and Louis out of the positions and the palace, and then call Me, both Will and I knew that this way will help the evil situations in our world to be in the end” And the pronunciations “I will go” in the song “Happier” means “Will promised Me Will will come to take Me, My Parents, and My Group from Thailand to fly to The Holy Home”

Will, once again: You are The Future King of the UK. And I am Your True Soulmate. But Kate, George, Charlotte, and Louis are “the rebels”. But why You never follow My requests which I have asked for since 2013, but let Kate, George, Charlotte, and Louis who all are “the rebels” order You who are The Future King of the UK to do as their orders every day since 2002?

Will, King Charles, and Harry, sir. I am waiting for calling from Prince William.
