

I am not changed. ... I fight! (2)

(24 June 2026)

(Please read them all.)

I told you in The Topic “I am not changed. ... I fight!” (2 May 2025): “At the start, I cried because I had thought “I cannot do anything!””

Whereas, on 23 June 2026, Almighty or Allah told Me to tell everyone the truths He has told Me many times;

“Angie. Ratchaneewan Ad-harn and Ad-harn family have kept tabs on You and Your Family since You were A Toddler. So, they all really know that You do not surrender for any people who look for a problem at You, and/or bully You, and/or persecute You. But Angie. What if people all over The World whom they enticed to join the plan knew these truths?

Therefore, Angie. To see countless people all over The World agree to join the plan by their thought “Angie will be really soon died”, at the start, Ratchaneewan and her family ordered Me to control You to think “I cannot do anything” and to control You to frequently cry. They all also ordered Me to control You to take paracetamol overdose in 2002 too. Ratchaneewan and her family thought “We tried to make Angie suicide more than 10 years (From 1987 to 1999) but She fought us and we could not succeed in making Her suicide. If countless people help us to kill Her, She will be died by us surely!””

By the way, Angie, at the start, not many foreign people understood the Thai language even Will and Harry. So, the controls made Will be easily controlled to forget that I had told Him “The Name of Your Soulmate is “Kay”” but be effortlessly fooled “Angie cried and suicided because She really loves the Thai man and does not want to separate from him!”

Angie, You never change. Ratchaneewan and her family knew Your Natures but other people never know Your behaviours and habits before 2000! Hahaha ...”
