

If I am Allah's Messenger, why I was born as a Buddhist? (1 June 2024)

😊😊 Asalamualaikum 😊😊

Before all else, I would like all Muslims to think over: Thailand has diversity religions. If I were born as a Christian, how would you feel and think about Me? Conversely, how would Christians feel and think about Me if I were born as a Muslim?

The following question is that did you see the situations in our world since Na-bee Mohammad ascended to Heaven?

For these reasons, because The Wisdom of Allah or another name is Almighty, so He chose to send Me to be born as a Buddhist in order to be at the middle among diversity religions in our world, in order to know essential truths which Muslims and Christians have never known, and in order to help everyone to know that Allah or another name is Almighty, all gods, and all goddesses never separate themselves by religions or races, both Jesus and Na-bee Mohammad are The Sons of Allah or another name is Almighty, and both Jesus and Na-bee Mohammad intimate each other.

On the same way, because The Wisdom of Allah or another name is Almighty, so He chose to send Me to be born as a yellow. As He knows if I were born as a black, the white would not trust Me. And if I were born as a white, the black would not trust Me too.

And Allah or another name is Almighty chooses A Girl to be The Only One Prophet of the current millennium because He is A Wise Adult Who is everlastingly early 30 years old, A Male, A Single Dad, and A Gentleman, so He gives foremost importance to children and women. He knows what have happened to children and women all over the world. He also knows what adults in the next generations would do to children and what men in the next generations would do to women if He sent A Boy or A Man to be The Prophet of the current millennium!

Clear?
