

If you are not good (Updated Version of 7 January 2025)

If you believe the lie of pimp king Bhumibol, the satanic Chakri dynasty, and all Thai people “Being a good person are not good”, carefully consider;

If being a good person is not good, why pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty do everything to conceal their bad deeds and pretend to be good people to be “the best”?

If being a good person is not good, why all the Thai people go to temples, make merits, and pretend to be nice people to tempt foreign people into believing “We are good”

If being a good person is not good but being a wicked person is good, why many people pretend to be good people but do not pretend to be wicked people?

Although he is wicked, if his deep mind does not tell himself “Being a good person is good”, why does he want other people to believe “He is good”? ...

... If he answers “I want the other people to accept me”, it shows that his deep mind tells himself “The other people accept good people because being a good person is good!”

And when a man and a woman fall in love with each other, why both the man and the woman want the opposite gender to believe “He is good (enough)” or “She is good (enough)”

But once again: Although the image of pimp king Bhumibol and the satanic Chakri dynasty is “the best”, could their image help them to be “the best” forever? ...

... So, what will happen if you are not good? ...

Note: Think twice;

1) If lying the lie is good but telling the truth is bad, why people who laid the lie do not want other people to know “He told the lie” but want the other people to believe “He told the truth”?

2) If people who are honest are not good, why people who are cheat (and/or tricky) do not want other people to know “He is cheat (and/or tricky)” but want the other people to believe “He is honest”? And why every person in business circle wants his partners and his customers to believe “He is honest”?

3) If people who are sincere are not good, why people who are insincere do not want other people to know “He is insincere” but want the other people to believe “He is sincere”?

4) If women who are naïve and nice are not good, why most of wicked women pretend to be naïve and/or nice?

5) If women who keep their virginities and are monogamous are not good, why all important harlots especially all important harlots who are members of the satanic Chakri dynasty, all important harlots who became members of royal families, and all important harlots who became famous do not reveal their truths of “screw” to public?

6) If people who are loyal their ethical royal family are not good, why even David Cameron and Andrew Parker Bowles tempt good foreign people especially good British people into believing “He is heartily loyal The British Monarchy”?

And

7) If being a good person is not good but being a wicked person is good, when we are at court of law that is a symbol of justice, why a good person is more creditable than a wicked person?

... So, once again:
what will happen if you are not good? ...
