

In addition to The Topic “Some truths of the Thai troop”

(2 May 2026)

(Please read them all.)

I always make appointment with Khun Ple, a hairdresser, to shampoo My Hair at her hair salon at around 5:00 pm every Wednesday and every Sunday. And I spend the time to shampoo My Hair at her hair salon and the time to come Home around 30 minutes to 45 minutes.

On 29 April 2026 when was a Wednesday, at midday, while I was sending My Mind about the truths in The Topic “Some truths of the Thai troop” by thinking about the truths repeatedly, I told audiences “I am sending My Mind about these truths again today at The English Round (6:15 pm (Thailand time))” because I calculated the time to shampoo My Hair and the time to come Home completely.

Whereas, on the same day at around 4:45 pm, Khun Ple postponed our appointment from 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm because she needed to shampoo and dry hair of “Soda” whom I truly knew that she has worked the plan, so she has had a chance to spend her life at Japan, in that “Soda” had had to work in this evening but I would go out of My Home with My Father to Chulabhorn hospital tomorrow!

Although Khun Ple called Me to go to her hair salon at around 5:45 pm (as I had repeatedly thought about her reason why she had postponed our appointment) and I came back Home at around 6:15 pm, I felt tired and had not much meditation to send My Mind by thinking about the truths repeatedly!

So, carefully consider: Why Khun Ple postponed our appointment? And do You think The Topic “Some truths of the Thai troop” is the truths, or not?
