

My letter to Prince William (8 March 2024)

Dear Will,

Will, because My Parents are My life, so I would like you to know some truths of My Parents.

Will, I have noticed My Dad. So, I strongly believed that My Dad has known that after I had known "Prince William is My Soulmate", My Dad, My Mom, and I had to wait for you and Christians to know "We are fooled into waiting for Jesus and the Judgement" 10 years. But My Dad was tricked "Prince William will call Angie on Her Birthday 2023"

Will, after My Birthday 2023 had passed, I heard a thought of My Dad "We must wait for another 8 months until Christmas Day 2023!"

But Will, even the new year day 2024, you still did not call Me. And while we have waited for your call, My Dad almost passed over at least twice, have felt pain because of his diseases, and have seen Me and My Mom be severely tormented every day.

Will, if you were My Dad, how would you feel?

Will, how about My Mom?

Will, My Mom started cleaning Our Home around 4 – 5 months before Christmas Day 2023. In the period of that time, I periodically heard thoughts of My Mom "Foreign people will come to Our Home soon" and "Our Home will be cleaned and will be cleared easier"

But Will, even the new year day 2024, you still did not call Me. So, since the new year day passed around 2 weeks, the face of My Mom has periodically shown feelings "unhappy" and "concerned"

And Will, now, My Mom who is an elderly and has not been slept enough since 2000, started not to have enough power to cook. My Mom started to buy food for Our meals even though we are not sure that they put something harmful for us into the food, or not. And My Mom knew that you knew what have happened to Me and My Parents when I and/or My Parents buy food to eat.

Will, if you were My Mom, how would you feel?

Will, since 2019, I have periodically heard a thought of My Dad “You are like these. How can you take care of My Daughter?”

Will, I have periodically heard a concerned thought of My Mom many times “I know women’s hearts. If My Daughter marries Prince William, My Daughter will feel anguished all Her marriage life!”

Will, around 2005 – 2006, I heard the voice of Ratchaneewan Ad-harn once “In the end, The Dad of The Kid will not want anyone to separate The Kid from him!” And I have periodically heard “The more The Dad see The Natures of his Daughter, the more possessive he feels”

Will, I still have not known what My Dad and My Mom have heard, and I do not really want to compare I and Kate, but the voices have usually and ridiculously asked Me “If there is “bearing of fruit”, why Kate and her parents have been extoled and have lived comfortable and luxury life, but You and Your Parents have been laughed at and have been looked down on, have had hard lives, and have been severely tormented since the end of November 1999?”

Will, My Dad will be 78 years old fully on 26 April 2024. My Mom will be 75 years old fully on 17 March 2024. And I will be 48 years old fully on 19 April 2024. I mean that for Me, only 2 years to 50 years old. And I believed that My Parents have known that you have known “Angie is My Soulmate” at the origin, but you have let Me be violently tormented for around 24 years. So, Will, if you were My Parents who have been violently tormented along with Me around 24 years, how would you feel?

Will, try asking your cousins who have a daughter such as Princess Royal Anne and Prince Andrew “If you were The Parents of Angie, how would you feel? And would you trust me to cherish and take care of your Daughter all Her life?”

Will, all which I told you earlier are because I really would like you to know that your deeds have made not only Me feel so disappointed and hurt but also My Parents in that “What a child feels, the parents feel more”, right?

So, Will, could you forecast if 19 April 2024 when is My Birthday 2024 comes but you still did not call Me, how would I and My Parents feel?

By the way, Will, the royal money which Kate has spent since she started being your girlfriend and the royal money which George, Charlotte, and Louis have spent since they “became” your children is the money of Mine and Our children. But the investigation team has let Kate and her children continual spending the money of Mine and Our children until the middle of April 2024. Will. Kate has spent the money of Mine and Our children for wines, liquors, beers, and luxury goods in that Kate and her children have known since they started being “your family” “We will be killed in the end, so, we do not need to compensate anything to Prince William and Angie in this world!”. So that, what will Daddy Charles and you manage for these cases to help Me and My Parents to feel better?

Last, Will, although My Parents have let Me make decisions about My Life by Myself since I was a teenager, My Parents are My Life. So, the man who will become The Husband of Mine must be harmonized not only Me but also My Parents in that My Parents are 2 of the people I love in this world the most 😊😊.

Will, I am waiting for calling from you.

Kind Regards,
