

There is no honour among thieves! (15)

(Some truths of Prayuth Jun-o-cha)

(9 February 2026)

(Please read them all.)

Although Prayuth Jun-o-cha is one of the consultants of pimp king Bhumibol, prostitute queen Sirikit, and all the members of the satanic Chakri dynasty, who has advised them to continual tormenting Me, My Parents, My Group, and their targets to torment so as to be one of their alibis “If we did and other people knew that we did, we would be afraid, then, we would stop. And if we really did, why we revealed ourselves that we did. We are not stupid. We are innocent. We are blackened!”, when the inauspicious time comes, Prayuth and their all consultants will manage to survive by an excuse;

“At that time, by our works and responsibilities, we could not be the opposite side of the pimp kings and the satanic dynasty. ...

... Hence, we pretended to advise them like that because we really want to test “Are they all appropriate for being our kings and our dynasty?” with the result that we really knew that they all are not truly appropriate for being our kings and our dynasty. ...

... Now, because Angie and Prince William are at The Holy Home, so we could take actions like these!”

Refer to the truths earlier, ones should be afraid of the word “betray” because it is not happened by his any enemies!

Did you agree with Me “There is no honour among thieves!”?
