

To Remind (18)

Will, Daddy Charles, and Harry, sir. If One of My Missions was to be severely tormented to die to test each human before, why Almighty will turn back the time to 1987 when was the time nobody started tormenting Me to let everyone begin again?

Will, Daddy Charles, and Harry, sir. Although the situations in the period of this time will be noted in the world history, why begin again like the situations in the period of this time are not real?

Will, Daddy Charles, and Harry, sir. If You All think “Almighty follows the lies of the opposite of Us as the opposite of Us wants Almighty to do”, think twice: Why the opposite of Us who wishes Us maliciously and wants the good and Us to be buried the heartbreak scars in Our hearts will want the good and Us to begin again? So, who really wants Us to begin again? And once again: If One of My Missions was to be severely tormented to die to test humans before, why Almighty will turn back the time to 1987 when was the time nobody started tormenting Me to let everyone begin again? Will, Daddy Charles, and Harry, sir. Why begin again?
