

Why Thailand has been able to maintain its independence and peace?

(13 September 2025)

(Please read them all.)

All Thai people have thought “We have been able to maintain our independence and peace and Thailand has never been a colony of anyone because of the abilities of our Thai ancestors and the protection of Phra Siam Devadhiraj and the sacred things of Thailand”

Whereas, The Father Almighty or Allah has told Me many times “Angie. Thailand has been able to maintain its independence and peace and has never been a colony of anyone because I have kept Thailand for You to be born, grow up, and stay. And Phra Siam Devadhiraj and all the sacred things of Thailand have still protected Thailand because You have still been in Thailand. When You will have gone out of Thailand, Phra Siam Devadhiraj and all the sacred things of Thailand will have gone out of Thailand along with You!”

The Father also asked Me “Angie, how the Thai ancestors who could become the sacred things to protect their country must be? Another word of “the sacred things” is “the holy things”, right? So, if the spirits of the Thai ancestors are not good, how can they become the sacred things? And Angie, the sacred things that must be the good spirits do not want to live with and protect wicked people, but want to live with and protect You and good people!”

Did you know why Thailand has been able to maintain its independence and peace? 😊😊😊😊😊😊
